Housing on Trial

A Study of Immigrants and Local Government

ELIZABETH BURNEY

An important discussion of the housing problem in Britain, traced through the experience of six very different local authorities. The author makes some practical suggestions. Paper covers 4 plates, 5 maps, 3 charts 25*s net*
Institute of Race Relations

India and Ceylon: Unity and Diversity

A Symposium

Edited by PHILIP MASON

In this collection of essays by eminent scholars, five main areas of tension in the complexity of Indian society are considered. The contributors include Percival Spear and Hugh Tinker. 2 maps 55*s net*
Institute of Race Relations

South West Africa and its Human Issues

JOHN H. WELLINGTON

The result of over forty years of intensive study of the political, economic, and racial conditions of Southern Africa, this book presents the human issues of the mandated territory from three angles: the geographical, the historical, and the political. 13 plates, 19 text figures 84*s net*

Afrikaner and African Nationalism

South African Parallels and Parameters

EDWIN S. MUNGER

Both aspects of nationalism in South Africa are here re-examined in the light of the sweeping 1966 electoral gains of the National Party, the development of Bantustans, and the accession to power of Mr Vorster. 1 map 25*s net*

The Non-Directive Approach in Group and Community Work

T. R. BATTEN with the collaboration of MADGE BATTEN

Many social development agencies are now experimenting with a non-directive (community development) approach to groups and communities both in 'developing' and 'developed' countries. This is a critical study of the nature, scope, and limitations of this approach. 6 diagrams and tables paper covers 18*s net*

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS

Office Automation in Social Perspective

H. A. RHEE

The main purpose of the book is to clarify the implications for the individual, groups and society as a whole, of the use of an entirely new kind of machine, in an environment which hitherto has not lent itself well to mechanization.

Aspects of Modern Sociology

THE SOCIAL STRUCTURE OF MODERN BRITAIN

Edited by J B Mays and M Craft

This series has been designed to meet the needs of those training for social work, teaching and a wide variety of other professions, against the background of the rapid advances now being made in teaching and research in the social sciences, and, in particular, in sociology. It concentrates on the social structure of modern Britain, which forms the central feature of most higher education sociology courses in this country. The series offers an analysis of some aspects of contemporary society through the study of such major social institutions as the family, education and the economic and political structure of the country.

POPULATION

R K Kelsall

An up-to-date account of the past, present and expected future trends in Britain's population. The book discusses fertility, mortality and migration and assesses the implications of the data available.
